

Shinbukan and Seishinkan International Present:

The Classical Combat Arts Sampler Series

Samurai War Fan

鉄扇術

TESSENJUTSU

WHAT: A one day, two hour, hands-on, no experience necessary introductory Sampler on Tessenjutsu - Samurai War Fan. Learn how to use this ancient companion weapon of the Samurai as a modern day self-defense tool. This introductory Sampler will focus on proper gripping, postures, basic striking and blocking tactics, with fundamental engagements featuring the techniques and strategies of the War Fan against the Sword, Staff, Knife and much more. The event will begin with a brief slide show of many historical photos and facts, so be sure to come early.

WHEN: Saturday afternoon April 23rd, 2005

TIME: 2:00 Noon - 4:00PM It is vital that you come early to prepare!

WHERE: Shinbukan Center For The Martial Arts - 2821 Whipple Ave. NW Canton, Ohio 44708. Web Site: <http://www.shinbukan.com> - Phone: 330.478.6100

WHO: You! Family, friends, anyone, ages 12 and up. All martial arts practitioners and instructors are welcome. No martial arts experience is necessary.

WEAR: Loose, comfortable, clean clothing or your martial arts uniform.

FEE: Includes 1 bamboo Fan. Advance registration - $30.00 per person and only $20.00 per additional family member. Various Fans will be available for purchase after the event.

REGISTRATION: Advanced registration a must. Sampler size is limited - sign up now! Stop by the Shinbukan, call 330.478.6100 or send E-Mail to Mike Dunphy at: mdunphy@walsh.edu

INSTRUCTOR: John Viol Shihan - Chief Instructor for Seishinkan International. Web Site: <http://www.seishinkan.com>

